

Take The Lead As The Process Industry Exp

Skid Steer Loader

Do you do specialized work in smelters, mills and process plants? It's risky, but with risk come Skid Steer Loaders and suppliers. It's dangerous to the operator and unproductive work.

Loaders can be equipped with remote control systems to operate the machines from away from any potential hazards. Loaders can complete spot work or vats, moving material and active material; resisting avoiding active power lines of distance.

Management can confidently operate the machines. Operators are not exposed to injuries.

Benefits: Win more spots; protect your people; Multi tasking options

Features

- Line-of-Sight remote control (radio remote)
